Have you been left out of a Will?

Contesting a Will is a very distinct and specialist area of law and at McNamara & Associates we offer a team of Solicitors who practice exclusively in this area, making our lawyers the leading Solicitors in the area for estate claims.

We understand that losing a family member is a difficult time, and contesting a Will is a very emotional process.

At McNamara & Associates we can help you achieve a successful outcome, while at the same time reducing the stress and worry for you, allowing you the time you need to grieve.

There can be many reasons that you may have been left out of a Will; whether it be that the deceased intended on changing their Will to include you but never got around to it, or influence by other family members over the deceased when preparing their Will, or a breakdown in the relationship between yourself and the deceased. Irrespective of the reason for you not being provided for, McNamara & Associates are more than happy to assess your claim and to provide you with advice as to your prospects of receiving something from the estate if you were to pursue a claim.

You should be aware that strict time limits apply if you want to contest a Will. Do not delay and contact one of our expert Wills and Estates lawyers on 07 3816 9555 or by email rsanfuentes@mcna.com.au to arrange a one on one consultation.
